Settling-In Tips

Starting at a new boarding school can be both exciting and challenging. Here are some tips to help with the transition:

• Bring personal items to make your space feel like home (photos, small decorations, etc.)

• Participate in house and school activities to meet new people

• Establish a regular routine for studying, relaxation, and sleep

• Don't hesitate to ask questions or seek help when needed

• Stay in regular contact with family and friends from home

Arrival Information

The boarding house opens for new students on [Date] from [Time]. Please report to the main reception upon arrival, where you will be welcomed and shown to your accommodation. Orientation activities will begin on [Date] at [Time].
